In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Louis Payton

23123 Northeast 112th Court Road, Fort McCoy, FL, USA

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

It is unfair that the people who suffer or have our data at risk receive only a token when the companies at fault make untold amounts of money selling our data. I feel any settlement is inadequate but a token settlement is an insult to justice.

Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I have experienced considerable anguish since the Equifax breach and credit cards were opened in my name and mailed to my home. I cancelled same and called the companies before financial loss could occur. Equifax is a huge company who should be forced to reimburse its customers adequately. Please do so in the verdict.

I object to this settlement because I have been unduly burdened by the data breach by Equifax. My personal information is now on the dark web. I am bombarded daily with spam email and phone calls. trying everything they can to further exploit my personal information to their advantage. In my opinion, Equifax should be punished to the full extent of the law. I am elderly, disabled, and also a widow. I did nothing to warrant this situation, yet I am one of many penalized by the actions of Equifax.

Please sir, take the objections in your consideration of this case against Equifax.

This is an entity that should be held to the most extreme standard of care if personal data. They were aware of the possibility of breach if adequate protective measures were not in place. They failed in their standard duty of care and their proposed settlement is miniscule in comparison to the magnitude of their breach of duty and it places an undue burden on the victims who were affected that in absence of the breach would have been unnecessary.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Nafeesah Abdullah

730 W. Lake Street #163 Chicago IL 60661

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I find what Equifax is offering to be unfair and unjust because they make tens of millions of dollars selling people's personal information and they should be held accountable for it financially. I've been affected by this having scammers trying to harass me for money on loans I never took out having my personal information that I never gave out. It's undaunting that they put my personal security at risk with their negligence.

The compensation offered is not commensurate with harm inflicted upon the affected parties. Credit monitoring provided by another hacked company is inadequate.

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☐ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I expect to be represented by an attorney.

Reuben Metcalfe

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I object to the settlement because it has been monetarily downgraded to 1/20 of its originally posted value.
This is absolutely unfair.

I object to this settlement because for one thing they tried to cover it up and didn't tell us at the time it happened. The settlement amount is ridiculous considering we will have to watch our credit reports for years to come and the American people put their trust in this company. They shouldn't get off paying 5 dollars for such a error in their part

- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Honorable Thomas Thrash, I am sad that a company as profitable as Equifax sold information and then turned around and made millions off it and my information was used and I'm going to receive 10-12 bucks or their monitoring services....this seems unfair to me and I object.

Equifax's reported settlement is a joke when considering the possibility of identity theft to those of us who are in danger of it happening. It could cost me thousands to fix their issue.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

The credit agencies collect data without administrative oversight on the validity of the data. Yet, credit card companies take this data at face value without confirmation. A person may spend years trying to repair the erroneous data which in the meantime has negative effects on the consumer, yet, these credit agencies do not safeguard the data they collect.

This breach has caused alot of damage to many people. Paying out ten bucks a person is unreasonable. I alone have had to do quite a bit of work to ensure my information hasn't been used, and it has likely from this breach. I hope a fair judgement for all can be established to hold the company responsible. Thank you for the opportunity to clarify my reasoning and taking time to read it.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Loretta Allred

20500 Walton Saint Clair Shores MI 48081

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☐
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

By no doing of my own mine and millions of people's personal information was stolen and broadcasted who knows where for people to steal identity's. This multiply billion dollar company is going to compensate us with $10.00 or less....Congress should have made them go out of business for ruining the lives of many but know there still in business and we get just about nothing. Please don't let this case continue like this. Make them pay...,

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

With all of the millions of people that have been affected by this breach, the settlement does not even come close to the hassle that the average person like me will have to endure to keep watch to make sure no one steals our identity.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Honestly, for a billion dollar business to offer to pay the victims such a paltry amount for the amount of pain and hardship that they have inflicted on us is laughable. They should be required to pay out the amount that they originally advertised. Offering to allow us to receive free credit alerts (or whatever else they feel is a lesser expense) is a slap in the face to all that have been affected by their breach. Thank you for your time.

Peter Reque

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☐ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

it seems to me that the system has gone to considerable effort to produce minimal results. If, in fact, the settlement results in about $10 per class member, it wasn't worth it.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This has to end I have had my personal information stolen so many times that i already have the free credit monitoring. If a large company like equifax isnt held responsible it sets a bad precedent for the other companies. If i owned a large company i would make sure that everyones information was secure. Equifax failed to do so and therefore needs to pay the consumers who they hurt.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Your Honor - This was one of the most profound and far reaching data breaches of our lifetime, the leak of one of our most closely-guarded and permanent forms of identification, on a truly massive scale. Equifax is receiving what amounts to a small slap on the wrist, and very little of the money is even reaching the plaintiffs they egregiously failed to protect. This settlement serves neither as sufficient restitution for those harmed, nor as sufficient deterrence for future malfeasance of this magnitude. I strenuously object to this settlement, and urge you to reconsider.

Equifax is getting off easy, and they need to be made an example of. They already harvest all of our data and unknowing sell it to make money, but then they have a major data breach and offer a few years of credit monitoring or a few dollars?? This is not fair. If It was an individual, we would be sentenced to jail. This is a slap on the wrist.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I was a victim of identity theft. One of the thieves recently pleaded guilty but the rest of the group has not: [United States v. Hared (3:19-cr-00040)]. I do not yet have enough information to know whether Equifax was partially culpable in the case of my identity theft. However the media has reported other major inadequacies in Equifax's security. For example, Equifax was protecting sensitive personal information on a portal used to manage credit disputes with the username:password "admin:admin". I still do not know how much damage the Equifax breaches have caused to me, but the amount of time I have spent protecting myself and the mental and emotional distress that identity theft has caused are worth far more than the settlement amount.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

A settlement that reduces the monetary value to pennies is a joke

What happened was an egregious miscarriage of responsibility, and the fine/settlement should reflect that.

Otherwise no company is going to be deterred from lax security, if the identities they protect are worth nothing.

I am more than nothing.

I feel that this penalty is ridiculously low and a Company of this size should pat a lot more than this petty amount. Put it back to the amount it was and show companies that they will be penalized for failing to protect us the public through their negligence.

The fact that people's right to privacy was so greatly violated and that a potential payout for these damages might only equal up to 21 cents is deplorable. I ask you to demand more for the American people who were wronged by Equifax.

Thanks,

Sheila Myers

502 Superior St. Hermitage, PA 16148

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This company makes millions from selling my information. I think they should pay more for their data breach. They are intrusted with millions of Social Security numbers of Americans. Their system should protect that privilege, not just make money off of it leaving Americans to wonder who is stealing their identity and possibly their life savings.

The potential harmful effect of this breach will be there for the rest of my life hanging over my head. The few dollars is far from adequate to offset the unending threat. If this company could not protect me from the breach why would i want it guarding it going forward, or any other company such as Experian who has also experienced breaches. That is the ultimate example of the fox guarding the henhouse.

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☒
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Credit monitoring is a service which can be had for free, and the fact that they want credit monitoring provided in lieu of cash shows it is worth less to the company than the cash

The security of my identity and millions of others is important. The consequences of a breach can be catastrophic, and it's unreasonable to award $5 in compensation for putting my entire life at risk of identity theft. You're basically telling me that my identity is worth less than a Starbucks coffee! The American people deserve better, and we expect those responsible to be held accountable instead of given a slap on the wrist.
